

Cookie Policy

1. Overview

This Cookie Policy explains how and why cookies and similar technologies are used on the Site.

2. Types of Cookies

Strictly Necessary, Functional, Analytics, and Advertising cookies. Detailed cookie tables can be provided upon request and may vary by deployment.

3. Consent Mechanism

Where required by EU/UK law, non-essential cookies are deployed only after consent is obtained via a banner. You may withdraw consent at any time using the banner or browser settings.

4. Managing Cookies

Most browsers provide controls to block or delete cookies. Blocking cookies may impair the functionality of the Site.

5. Third Parties

Third-party cookies (e.g., analytics, CDN, tag managers) are governed by the third party's policies. We do not control their practices.

6. Changes

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. Continued use of the Site signifies acceptance of the updated Policy.
